

Health & Safety - Essentials

The Product

This portfolio is a UK produced range of high quality intranet and web deliverable work support courses, providing Health and Safety and compliance courseware which concentrates on making the workplace safer and fair.

Adopting safe and healthy practices at work makes good business sense. An unsafe, unhealthy work environment is dangerous, unpleasant and unproductive. It is important that employees should be aware that is their duty to:

- Take reasonable care for the health and safety of themselves and the people who may be affected by what they do and don't do.
- Comply with Health and Safety regulations applicable to their work area.

These courses will give you invaluable guidance for developing your understanding of how to prevent accidents, damage and ill health at work.

By the end of the course you will:

- Understand the importance of Health and Safety in the workplace
- Be able to apply basic Health and Safety principles to your work environment
- Be able to identify and resolve common Health and Safety problems
- Have been introduced to the Health and Safety at Work Act

Who Will Benefit?

The courseware is aimed at all levels of staff and managers, particularly those with personal health and safety and HR responsibilities
